

INVITATION

“HONG KONG – Asia’s Trade Fair Capital”

Wednesday, 8th April 2009

Enterprise House, Ground Floor Room 1BC, 136 Greenhill Road, Adelaide

5.30pm: Registration

5.45pm ~ 7.15pm: Seminar and Networking

Hong Kong has established itself as the world’s top trade service hub, a merchandise centre as well as the regional business platform for the SMEs from all round the world. Hong Kong is renowned as a trade fair capital. Each year, Hong Kong hosts more than 60 world-class international trade fairs – seven of which are the largest in Asia and UFI Approved.

This Business Seminar will cover the latest ‘Buyer Sponsorship Program’ provided by HKTDC, updates on the Hong Kong/China’s economic condition and the Hong Kong - Australia Business Association, SA Chapter’s 2009 Delegation Plan. It will provide the ideal opportunity for Importers, Wholesales, Retailers and other businesses, who are interested in sourcing from Hong Kong and China, to discover why Hong Kong is the pre-eminent International Business City of China and the Trade Fair Capital of Asia and learn how to source products from Hong Kong, China and beyond.

Guest Speakers:

Ms Bonnie Shek - Director Australia NZ, Hong Kong Trade Development Council, Sydney

Mr John Gerard - Director, Gerard Corporation

Case Study Speakers: – Ms Susan Lee – Soniclean and Mr Michael W Higgs – Director, World Wide Wearables
