

Drinking to China

SOUTH Australian wines' affinity with Chinese cuisine will be celebrated this weekend at a Hong Kong Australia Business Association dinner.

With Hong Kong scrapping wine import taxes so the region can become a gateway to Asia for wine, the dinner will have added relevance.

The Saturday-night dinner at Ming's Palace in Gouger St will team courses of Chinese food with SA wines.

SA Lieutenant Governor and HKABA patron Hieu Van Le is scheduled to attend, as is Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office deputy director David Yip.
